As a first step in looking into the situation Shevlin sent up to Westchester County for Agents McGuire and Weldon, who recently oporated inder his orders on Staten Island, in order to gain first hand information shout Staten Island saloon keepers and the possible presence there of other agents than those regularly authened to Staten Island duty. Shev. lin said he would look into the report that $10,000 worth of liquor was stored, legally or illegally, in the Manhatten Hotel at South Beach and that he had asked his counsel, August Hasenflux, to keep in close touch with Malloy.

Malloy asked the Manhattan Police to bring to him as a witness a truckdriver named Solomon, an acquaintance of Eckert, who was said to have been in convergation with him and William Maloney, proprietor of the DEMPSEY WILL BOX Manhattan Hotel, at 8 o'clock the evening before the murder. Maloney, on the advice of his counsel, former Distriot Attorney A. B. Foch, will say Champion's Manager Announces nothing, but Malloy hopes to learn from Solomon the name of the man with whom Eckert was last seen in the car in which he was found dead.

Malloy was also looking into a report that Federal Attorney Leroy Ross had called Eckert to be a witness before the Grand Jury in Brooklyn to-day to testify regarding irregularities as to the enforcement of the Voistead Act, based on a complaint of a saloonkeeper.

Ross said he had no complaint from a Staten Island saloonkeeper regardmg Federal Agents or involving the tectives then asserted that they were certain that threats of such a proeeding had been made and that the value of their information, as estab- on Jess Willard at New York. lishing a motive for the murder, was not affected.

Both Factions Prepared for Legal Struggle in Suit Started by the Antis.

COLBY READY TO ACT.

Will Proclaim Ratification of Amendment as Soon as Tennessee Vote Is Certified.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 28.—Both actions in the Tennessee Suffrage night prepared to-day for a legal buttle over the Legislature's ratification of the Federal Suffrage Amendment. Suffragists and their opponents were of the opinion that the next step in the controversy probably would be the hearing on the temporary writ of injunction issued Saturday by Judge Langford restraining State officials from certifying ratification to Washington.

No date has been fixed for the hearing. It was believed by some of the principals that the case might be heard late to-day or to-morrow. The writ is returnable within five days on agreement of the parties to the action.

The Tennessee Constitutional League, which brought the suit on the grounds that the Legislature under the State Constitution had no right to ratify the Suffrage Amendment, has announced it will carry its fight, if necessary, to United States Supreme Court. Officials of the league predict the injunction will tier will cancel his bout with Baftiing prevent women of the Nation from
